When games are assigned you will receive an email informing you that you have new games. At this point you will need to log in to Game Officials and accept or decline the games. You will only have 48 hours to accept the games, so it is important that you check your email daily. Some games will be assigned as a block, accepting one will accept all, as will declining one decline all. When a games is accepted it is your responsibility to make sure that you honor your commitment and remember the date and time. A reminder email will be sent to you one day prior to your game.

If you have any questions please call or email me. Even if you can't put in all the information, it is still important that you set up your account using at least steps 1-6, email me to help you work through the rest. An important part of using this system is that each referee must check his or her email daily.
